THE EXTRA SESSION.

A Quorum of Both Houses Present.

NO BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

Prospects of a Lively Time at the Capital—The Irrigationists Express Confidence.

Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, July 20.—The extra session of the Legislature began at noon today. Members have been dropping in by twos and threes for the past forty-eight hours. It is stated on reliable authority that the Fresno Convention Irrigation Committee have a pledge signed by two-thirds of each House that the irrigation bills of last session will be passed at once and an adjournment taken within ten days. Governor Stoneman says he has been assured by those in control that there will be a short and sharp session. All the Senators but two were expected to take their seats—Beauvais, who is dead, and Spencer, of Stanislaus, who has resigned. The Senate, therefore, will be composed of thirty-eight members, and to prevent a vote of two-thirds, or twenty-seven, it is only necessary for the riparianists to secure twelve Senators. It is claimed they already have five or six. The election of Senator to succeed George Hearst is the main topic of discussion on all sides. It is stated that the Legislature can and must on the second Tuesday after organization elect a Senator. Stoneman says lawyers have assured him that it cannot be done, and J. De Barth Shorb says it will not be done; but they are the only two men in Sacramento who believe that this is the case.

THE SENATE.

In the absence of Lieutenant-Governor Daggett, the President, and Benjamin Knight, President pro tem., the senior member of the Senate, F. F. Langford, of San Joaquin, called the Senate to order at 12 o'clock. Secretary Smith called the roll. There were 25 present, 13 absent and two vacant seats, Beauvais and Spencer. The Secretary read the proclamation convening the session, at the conclusion of which on motion of Del Valle, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 2 o'clock, out of respect for the memory of A. B. Beauvais, deceased.

THE ASSEMBLY.

At 12:15 P. M. Speaker Parks took his seat in the Assembly chamber and called the Assembly to order. The roll call showed that fifty out of eighty members were present, enough to constitute a quorum.

Chaplain Carroll Davis offered prayer. Speaker Parks then arose and spoke as follows:

"Gentlemen, you have been called together in special session for the purposes designated in the call of the Executive. The questions which you have been convened to consider are perhaps better taken up in special session. These questions involve the distribution of water and reorganization of the Judiciary. These questions require thorough consideration, and it is but just to the Governor and just to ourselves that we should meet him in the same spirit with which he has offered the call."

The Governor's proclamation was read by the clerk, after which Hugh McJunkin moved that the clerk notify the Senate of the fact that the Assembly was in session. Carried.

On motion of Mr. Day the Speaker was instructed to appoint a committee of three in conjunction with a similar committee from the Senate to notify the Governor that both Houses of the Legislature were now in session. Mr. Parks appointed May, Munday and Jordan. Dr. May arose to speak to call to the official attention that since the body had been last in session the seat of John Lafferty, of San Francisco, has been made vacant by his death. He moved that when the Assembly adjourn it should adjourn until 2 P. M. to-morrow out of respect to the memory of the deceased. Carried.

On motion of Culver of Yolo, the Assembly then adjourned.

A FOOLISH REPORT.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—A report has reached here from Sacramento that a number of Democratic members of the Legislature have signified their intention of bolting and going out of the State into Nevada in the event that an attempt is made to elect a United States Senator in place of George Hearst at the special session that has been convened by the Governor. They have the precedent for this in the bolting of Democrats in the Ohio Legislature, who, on a similar occasion, placed themselves out of reach of a "call of the House" by going into Kentucky.

THE IRRIGATION SIDE.

SACRAMENTO, July 20.—The Executive Committee of the Irrigation Convention, of which J. De Barth Shorb is Chairman, held a consultation this morning and discussed the situation. Hudnut stated this afternoon that beyond a doubt the Assembly will pass all of the Fresno Convention bills, but that there will be a contest in the Senate over some of them. Of the result, however, he has no doubt. Several of the Senators say that there is some doubt of the result. Members of the Executive Committee express the opinion that the session will last about two weeks.

The Executive Committee of the State Irrigation Convention have issued an address to the people of California setting forth the scope and aims of the irrigation movement. It calls upon the friends of irrigation and the legislature to resist and defeat all efforts made to bring up the Senatorial question in the extra session.

PERKINS AND SARGENT.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—Ex-Governor Perkins, in an interview to-day on the Senatorial question, said his opinion of the matter was based on what he could learn from the best legal minds, and it was that the Legislature undoubtedly had the right to elect a Senator. He thought such action, however, would be very ill-advised on the part of the Republicans. Senator Miller's term expires on the 4th of next March, and while Senator Hearst is a Democrat he is a representative Californian and an honest man and no harm could come from allowing him to fill out the remainder of his term. "One thing you can say, however," said Governor Perkins, "and that is that I am not a candidate."

Hon. A. A. Sargent stated to-day in reference to the extra session: "I think the members should act upon the matters named in the proclamation speedily and adjourn. I think irrigation the great necessity of the State. I do not think there should be a Senatorial election. Unless the Legislature is in session a fortnight there will be no legal duty or right to elect. Why cannot it consider its other propositions, adopt or reject them, and adjourn in less than two weeks? If an election must take place, which I do not anticipate or desire, I would like to be elected."

THE OPINION AT WASHINGTON.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—The Bulletin's Washington special says: The proclamation of Governor Stoneman convening the California Legislature in extra session, beginning to day, has provoked considerable discussion as to the right of the Legislature to elect a United States Senator to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Senator Miller, and now filled by reason of appointment by Governor Stoneman. Senator Stanford and Representatives McKenna, Henley and Morrow all express the opinion that the Legislature has the right to elect a new United States Senator if they choose to exercise it.

THE SITUATION PECULIAR.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—The assertion is made by many members that Senator Hearst's term expired at noon to day, when the Legislature convened. It is generally stated that the members will proceed to elect a new Senator on the second Tuesday from to-day, August 3d. Several members, however, are quietly laughing over this proposed arrangement, saying that no such opportunity will be offered, as the business for which the extra session was called will be transacted and the Legislature adjourned long before the legal date fixed for the election of a Senator has arrived. In this case the Governor would have to reappoint. The situation is peculiar.

WHAT VROOMAN THINKS.

Henry Vrooman said this afternoon that he has yet to meet a Republican member who is not in favor of electing a successor to George Hearst, and he says none that he has talked with are in favor of passing a constitutional amendment reorganizing the Supreme Court at this time.

Governor Stoneman will send a message to the Legislature as soon as organized recommending the adoption of the measures included under his call and giving his reasons for the same.

Neither House will be completely organized before Thursday morning.

THOMPSON'S OPINION.

SACRAMENTO, July 20.—Secretary of State Thompson believes that there is ground for the claim that Senator Hearst's seat will become vacant by the assembling of the Legislature.

LAWYERS PROTEST.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—Members of the Bar Association of San Francisco held a meeting to-night and adopted the following resolutions regarding that part of Governor Stoneman's proclamation for an extra session which requests the reorganization of the State Supreme Court:

Resolved, That the freedom and independence of the judiciary are inestimable and should be maintained, and that the present assault on the Supreme Court must be met and repelled.

Resolved, That the attempt to expel the present members of the Supreme Court through the guise of a Constitutional amendment, because of a decision rendered by them, is fraught with danger to the independence of the judiciary and the stability and perpetuity of our institutions, and merits the severest reprobation.

Resolved, That the attack on the courts is directly subversive of express guarantees contained in the Constitution designed to protect the independence of the Judiciary in the administration of justice, and as such meets with our unqualified condemnation.

It was also decided to appoint a committee to prepare a memorial to be presented to the Legislature expressive of the sense of the association with regard to the proposed reorganization of the Supreme Court.

Arrested for Cruelty.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—Captain H. P. Connors and first officer Pennington, of the steamer Starbuck, were arrested this afternoon on charges of cruelty to sailors while at sea. The mate stated that the three men who preferred the charges had been ordered in irons on account of drunkenness. On endeavoring to execute the order one of the men drew a knife and he found it necessary to strike him. Bail was immediately furnished for both Captain and mate.

Trying to Smuggle Chinese.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—During the examination of the Chinese passengers on the steamer Belgic to-day Surveyor Tinnin discovered five stowaways on the vessel. Three of them stated that they had given $150 each to the baker and the other two $160 and $165 respectively to the pantryman of the steamer on agreement with those officials to put them ashore. The captain ordered the pantryman and baker put in irons.

Produce Exchange Election.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—The annual meeting of the San Francisco Produce Exchange will take place to-morrow. As customary, the election for officers and directors to serve for the ensuing year took place to-day, with the following result: William Dresbach, President; E. Ransom, Vice President; H. Dutard, Treasurer; James Moore, E. O. Deming, I. R. Wilbur, T. G. Wolkington, Louis Steller and James Wightman, Committee on Appeals; Sol Wangenheim, C. F. Bassett, James Hogg, W. A. Holcomb and John F. English.

A Medicine Man Killed.

NEEDLES, Cal., July 20.—Cha Ma Dul Ha Na, a Mojave Indian medicine man, was clubbed to death, beheaded and cremated for allowing too many of his patients to die.

Dentists Pulling Together.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—The California State Dental Association began its seventeenth annual session at the Palace Hotel to-day. No business of importance was transacted.

CONFESSES HER SHAME.

Mrs. Crawford Laughs and Acknowledges Her Guilt.

LONDON, July 20.—The Dilke Court was crowded. To-day's evidence was decidedly the most interesting yet given. Mrs. Crawford testified. She confessed that she disliked her husband because he was too old and that she loved Foster because he was handsome and pleasing, and that she committed adultery with Dilke for the purpose of obtaining a divorce from her hated husband. She spared Foster as far as possible because she knew he was about to marry. Under strict cross examination she confessed that she had committed adultery only with Dilke and Foster exculpating two other society men. The evidence given to-day produced a deep impression. Its directness, clearness and circumstantial minuteness convinced all of its truth. Dilke's refusal to deny the liason with Mrs. Crawford's mother is attributed to the open nature of the scandal rendering a denial impossible. The conduct of Mrs. Crawford and her sister in court was marked by unseemly levity, laughing and talking together.

Gladstone Despondent.

LONDON, July 20.—After cabinet meeting Mr. Gladstone gave a reception in Council Hall to a number of his friends, including Baron Wolverton, Lord Granville, Lord Roseberry, Baron Munson and Arnold Morley. Mr. Gladstone referred in despondent terms to his failing powers, saying that he would be unable to fight in the face of an embittered Parliament. He would do his best, but he urged his followers to prepare to rely upon other leaders.

A Mob in France.

PARIS, July 20.—In Marseilles last evening mobs attacked the offices of the Royalist papers. The gens d'armes defended the buildings successfully, preventing the rioters from carrying out their purpose of sacking the premises. The mobs then turned on the gens d'armes and severe fights followed. The police and soldiers together overpowered the rioters and restored order. A number of rioters were arrested. Many police and soldiers were wounded.

Beecher Gets a Bad Send Off.

LONDON, July 20.—Adverse criticisms of the lecture delivered by Rev. Henry Ward Beecher last evening appear in several papers. The Pall Mall Gazette says: Mr. Beecher did not have a first-class send off. The hall was not filled, and the great platform was empty. The reception given him did not realize expectations. The applause was hearty but lacked fervency. This was partly due to the character of the audience and the high admission fee charged being a bar to the presence of people.

Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 20.—Senator Hearst, in partnership with a Mr. Head, of California, is reported to have purchased 350,000 acres of land in Northern Mexico.

Perished of Thirst.

THE NEEDLES, July 20.—Tom Kelly, a prospector, was found dead in the Hualapai mountains, near Yucca, Arizona. He perished from thirst.

Proceedings of the House and Senate.

MR. MORRISON'S SURPLUS BILL

The Illinoisan Talked of for the Treasury Portfolio—Hatch, of Missouri, Scores Ingalls.

[Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.]

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The Oleomargerine bill and amendments were reported to the Senate after a long debate. The first question being on Ingall's amendment, to reduce the tax on oleomargerine from five cents per pound to two cents, it was adopted, yeas 34, nays 28. The remaining amendments were adopted without question, and the bill as amended passed; yeas 37, nays 24.

Miller moved that the Senate insist on the amendments to the bill, and ask the House for a conference. Agreed to.

Ingalls addressed the Senate during the debate on the oleomargarine bill. He said that toward the close of the debate yesterday, exasperated by personal allusions intended to be offensive, he had made some observations which on reflection he was persuaded exceeded the limits of propriety in debate, and he availed himself of this first public occasion to express his regret.

At the evening session Mr. Allison called up the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill. The first amendment that was questioned was that striking out the item of $165,000 for the Brooklyn (N.Y.) Postoffice. The amendment was agreed to. The amendment striking out the item of $40,000 for completing a wharf for the Custom House at Charleston, South Carolina, was resisted by Mr. Butler and Mr. Hampton and was rejected. The amendment striking out the item of $25,000 for a custom house at Galveston, Texas, was resisted by Mr. Coke. It was temporarily passed over as were several other amendments. That striking out the proposal to enlarge the new pension building was agreed to after some remarks by Mr. Hale, in which he spoke of the building as a monstrosity, unsightly and a complete abortion and failure. The other amendments, including the item of $56,500 for the inauguration of the Bartholdi statue in New York harbor, were agreed to. After disposing of 76 pages of the bill out of 106 the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Hatch, of Missouri, rising to a question of privilege, sent to the clerk's desk and had read extracts from Senator Ingalls' speech in the Senate yesterday on the Oleomargarine bill, in which he characterized as a shameful spectacle the support of this measure in the House, under the leadership of the chairman of a committee, himself engaged in the dairy business and upon which he relied for support. Ingalls also charged that the above named chairman had a personal interest in the measure. "Mr. Speaker," said Mr. Hatch, "every gentleman on the floor will agree with me that the reference to me as chairman of the Committee on Agriculture of the House of Representatives by the Senator in the discussion of the bill that passed this House is in violation of every parliamentary rule and in violation of every manly and decent instinct that ought to actuate a member of either of these Houses. The respect which I have for this House and its members alone deters me from characterizing this attack as it ought to be characterized. I desire to state that when this gentleman connects my name in the statement that I am personally interested in the passage of the Oleomargerine bill, and that I derive my support or any part of it from the products of a herd of cows on my farm, it is simply a complete and gratuitous falsehood. When the gentleman attempted to insinuate in my absence and in form where I have no rights, that I have any more personal interest in the passage of that bill than the ten million farmers and sixty million consumers of butter in the United States he simply utters a falsehood, and when the gentleman goes further and says that I have in any part of the discussion descended into the arena of vulgarities, personalities and denunciation, he utters the greatest falsehood of his life, and that is the hardest thing I can say about him. I am not in the habit of descending to vulgarities and personalities. I leave that to flow from the mouth of this Senator of Kansas, that womb of slander and detraction.

The House went into Committee of the Whole, Hatch of Missouri in the chair, on the Senate amendments to the river and harbor bill.

At the evening session the House passed the following bills authorizing the construction of bridges: Senate bill, over navigable water courses by Astoria and Winnemucca Railroad Company; Senate bill, across the Williamette river by Gregonian Railway Bridge Company across Williamette river; by City of Salem, Oregon, across Saint Marie river; across St. Augustine river, Georgia; across the Missouri river in Montana; certain streams in Washington Territory. The bill authorizing the construction of a bridge across the Mississippi river at St. Louis was then called up, but as it promised to give rise to much discussion, the House, at 11:15, adjourned.

THE SURPLUS BILL.

Rumor That Morrison Will Join the Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Acting Secretary Fairchild and Treasurer Jordan were before the Senate Committee on Finance this morning to oppose the adoption of the Morrison surplus resolution. In the absence of formal action by the committee, the official statement of the proceedings cannot be given out for publication in the press. The following is gathered from various but entirely trustworthy sources as to the substance of the proceedings: Mr. Fairchild said the resolution was an effort on the part of the legislative branch of the government to impose a new restriction upon the executive branch not heretofore thought necessary, and in this view the representatives of the administration were hardly at liberty to discuss the merits of the proposition. He spoke on the assumption that the administration was fully committed to and in sympathy with the policy of applying the surplus to the redemption of the interest bearing debt and retiring the debt as rapidly as a prudent administration and sound policy permitted. This being assumed the Treasury Department could not see a single argument in favor of the resolution while it could see numerous and serious objections and ill affects and embarrassments which are likely to arrise from such arbitrary legislation. It was, in his opinion, impossible for any human being to look so far into the condition of the future as to tell in what amounts and at what intervals bonds could be called and redeemed during the next year. Mr. Fairchild responded to a number of questions by members of the committee as to the effects of the resolution, his statements indicating the belief of the Treasury that the department would be greatly embarrassed and its obligations violated. Treasurer Jordan submitted a series of tabulated statements and written replies to questions previously propounded by members of the committee, mainly of a statistical nature.

There is a rumor current here that if Morrison's resolution should become a law the President will ask Morrison to be Secretary of the Treasury and insist on his accepting the place on the ground that when Congress, by a large majority, prescribes a policy for any department of the government, the policy so prescribed ought to be carried into effect by the author of it.

Speaker Carlisle tells the World's Washington correspondent that there is no possible danger in Morrison's surplus resolution. He is in favor of maintaining $100,000,000 reserve. In the event of a panic, or an unusual demand on the treasury for gold, under the old redemption act the treasury authorities have full power to issue five per cent. gold bonds, so that they can command at will all the gold in the world, if necessary.

A Collision.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 20.—News of a terrible collision near Columbia, Tenn., on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, has just reached here. A special engine coming north ran into the Columbia accommodation going south, killing Engineer Beech, Henry Laughlin, conductor of the accommodation, Fireman Robert Brown, Monroe Wilson, baggage master, and two others.

The Great Union Depot.

The pressure is growing apace for a great union depot. The business of the railways of Los Angeles is now so large that more room must be obtained for the use of the thousands of cars that arrive and depart from the city.

The L. A. and S. G. V. R. R. fortunately took the river bank for its use, where plenty of cheap land could be obtained. The California Southern, or A. T. and S. F. R. R. has surveyed a line from Anaheim to Los Angeles that will enter the city on the west bank of the river and meet the other line near First street, where ample room can be obtained at a reasonable cost.

The next project is for the S. P. R. R. Co. to remove its track to the river bank from Alameda street, so that all the steam railways passing through the city can pass along the bank of the river and with their impregnable embankment form a permanent levee 500 feet in width. Their business is growing so rapidly that they must have room, and the river bank is the only locality where sufficient room can be obtained.

On each side of First street, a large tract can be secured for the purpose of a great Union Depot, where each of the three railways can have double tracks for the moving of their trains. The L. A. & S. G. V. R. R. has already secured the necessary room for its business on the north side of First street, and the other lines can easily meet it near there.

The property holders on Alameda street would probably contribute towards the expense of removing the S. P. track to the river bank.

Rich Mining Information.

A correspondent of the Calico Print gives the following reliable information about the great silver field in the Providence Mountain region:

The Bonanza King Company is now working about twenty miners in opening up their mine. The lower levels are said to be looking as good as at any time since the opening of the mine. The grade of ore on the eighth level being as good as on the surface, 300 to 400 ounces is not an unusual assay. This speaks well for the mine at that depth. The Bonanza King would put on a few more good miners at the present time.

A NEW RICH DISCOVERY

Was made about two months ago by two prospectors by the names of Witts and Slidel. They have already made a sample shipment to Kingman of 4 tons, the average being over $150 per ton. The are shipped was gold carrying about 40 oz of silver. There appears to be three stratas in the ledge which is situated about west from the Bonanza King on the west side of the Providence mountain. There is a small gold vein, a silver and gold vein and a large body of carbonate carrying about 30 to 40 ozs. of silver and some gold. Those who have examined the prospect speak of a likelihood of another Bonanza. The owners are now preparing to sink and see what they have got.

RUMORED SALE OF THE PERSEVERANCE MINE.

It is generally understood here that Mr. Kerr's group of mines north of the Bonanza King's property has been bargained for, and ere this is in type, that we are likely to have another company in Providence. The party negotiating is your townsman, Mr. Banton. Your correspondent has not learned the particulars of the trade, but no doubt another old-time prospector has been made happy.

A NEW FIVE-STAMP MILL.

Thirty-five miles north of here is a mining camp called Mescal. Messrs. McFarlane & Barrett, the lucky owners of the Cambria mine, some time since bonded their claim to Los Angeles parties. Developments have steadily since gone on, so that they now claim to have enough ore in sight to run a five-stamp mill for three years without doing any more developments. The company, under Mr. Barrett's immediate supervision, are now grading for a five-stamp mill. Part of the lumber is already on the ground and the mill will be hauled as fast as John Doring's big freight teams can bring it in. They have struck a splendid supply of water not more than a mile from their mine, giving them undoubtedly sufficient water for their mill. The mine is opened with two tunnels on the ledge so that they now have 200 feet of back stoping ground some 200 to 300 feet in length. The mill is under the superintendency of L. W. Carr, of Los Angeles, and is expected to drop its stamps about the 15th of September.

GENERAL NOTES.

Six men are working on the Mescal group of mines south of the Bonanza King.

W. A. McFarlane will close down the old Consolidated mill at Ivanpah in a few days, after a successful run of several months.

Van Winkle & Miller, prospectors, have gone to Charleston mountain to look into the mysteries of that country.

J. A. Bidwell and wife of Ivanpah are seeing the green fields of Pomona.

The Arrow gold camp is shut down for the present. The last carload of ore shipped went 3 to 5 ozs. in gold, and 5 ozs. in silver.

The Calico Print of July 18th has the following bullion report: Since our report in the last issue the following shipments of bullion were made from mines in the Calico mining district through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express:

Odessa Mill	$6,800
Hollberg & Thede	6,400
Oro Grande Co.'s Mill	6,859
Barber's Mill	6,000
Total since January 1, 1884,	$2,829,456

CATARRH.

The term Catarrh is applied to a peculiar disorder of the nostrils and adjacent parts, which prevails to an alarming extent, and is productive of very serious consequences. The most prominent and characteristic feature is a morbid discharge from the head, varying in its nature at different times.

In some there is an almost constant flow of clear, acrid fluid, but oftener an offensive, purulent or muco-purulent, greenish yellow matter is secreted, which accumulates in the nostrils or drops into the throat, necessitating its frequent removal by blowing the nose or expectoration, and often both processes. Sometimes patients feel as though their whole head was in a state of ulceration, so great is the amount of matter discharged and so fetid is its odor. The patient is greatly annoyed by the constant dropping into the throat of the morbid matter from the head, and as a recumbent position naturally favors the flow downward, his rest is frequently disturbed from this cause. Many sufferers are obliged to lie with the head very much elevated in order to sleep with some degree of comfort.

In others, a tough, viscid and offensive phlegm collects behind and above the palate, in the passage between the throat and head, adhering to the parts with gluish tenacity. Its lodgment embarasses respiration and creates a sensation of irritation and uneasiness in the affected locality, gives rise to a constant and almost irresistable desire to relive the discomfort by drawing the mucus into the throat so as to eject it by the mouth. This practice, popularly known as "hawking," is characteristic of catarrh, and proves as embarassing to the one affected as it is disagreeable to those around him.

Again the offensive matter hardens and deposits itself on the membranes in the shape of dry, hard concretions, which are dislodged by way of the nostrils or throat in lumps or fragments of a deep green hue. In some cases these incrustations accumulate to such an extent as to form a regular plug in the nose, which obstructs breathing and produces serious discomfort. So firmly do these incrustations adhere to the point of attachment that their removal usually requires the most violent efforts; not unfrequently they have to be torn from the membrane. Occasionally a solid cast of notable size is expelled, on which there are generally traces of blood, but in some cases the cast presents a tubular appearance, being of exact shape of the nasal cavity. This condition is indicative of ulceration, which, in time may destroy the bony structure of the nose and produce a subsequent flattening of that organ.

Cases are occasionally met with in which a thick, viscid, slimy secretion coats the membrane of the nasal cavities and then putrefies, giving rise to a stench which is really overpowering, and sufficiently fetid to poison the atmosphere of a whole room, and there are others in which all the secretions of the membrane are suspended, causing an unpleasant feeling of dryness, heat and feverishness in the head and nose —a condition popularly known as "Dry Catarrh."

The disease speedily extends to the air cavities of the bones of the forehead and face, giving rise to a distressing sensation of heavy weight or compression over the forehead, especially in the region above and between the eyes, and to a feeling of fullness, heat, irritation, soreness or pain in the nostrils near the root of the nose, as well as in the upper part of the throat, above and behind the soft palate. Sometimes there is pain obstinately fixed in some particular part, as in the temples, on the top of the head, at the back of the neck, or behind the orbits, and, occasionally, pain manifests itself in the face of so severe a character that it is frequently mistaken for neuralgia.

The breath is always tainted and at times assumes an exceeding fetid and sickening odor. In some cases it becomes so revoltingly offensive as to render the sufferer an object of disgust to himself as well as to others.

The nasal membrane is thickened and congested causing the nose to be stopped up, sometimes on one side, sometimes on one side, sometimes on the other, and often on both, giving rise to a disagreeable stuffy sensation in the head, and occasioning to violent and prolonged paroxysms of sneezing.

The voice is weak, indistinct and husky, or of a nasal character, displaying a sort of sniffing duality. Oftentimes there is a continuous hoarseness and discordance. There is also a sense of irritation in the throat, and frequent attempts to clear the parts of phlegm, producing the sound "hem" more or less forcibly. In some cases patients complain of an uncomfortable feeling of fulness, or a choky sensation in the throat, and in others of a distressing and almost constant dryness, for the temporary relief of which they have to swallow frequently. Others, again, speak of a constant bad or nauseous taste in the mouth or throat.

The stomach generally suffers more or less and become weak and irritable; the appetite is capricious, and nearly always bad in the morning. The patient is languid, unable to perform mental or physical labor with the usual facility, is nervous, depressed in spirits, at times fearful, timid, agitated and inclined to drowsiness and sleep; the memory weakened and permanent impairment seriously threatened.

The mucous membrane soon becomes morbidly sensitive to unfavorable influences, and in spite of the utmost care becomes affected from the slightest causes, so that at last a breath of wind upon the lining of the nose or throat becomes productive of a cold, and gives rise to serious disturbances of the respiratory organs. Thus the patient is subject to frequent and repeated colds, each attack aggravating the disease by giving it a new impulse and involving a larger extent than its predecessor. In this manner the difficulty spreads from organ to organ, invading the throat larynx, trachea and bronchial tubes until, encroaching further and further, it reaches the finer ramifications of the bronchi, when but a slight impulse is required to send it to the lungs. Catarrh may, and often does, affect other organs in the body, especially those containing a mucous membrane, such as the stomach, bowels, kidneys, etc.

Thus catarrh becomes the starting point of consumptive development, the disease being eventually transmitted to the lungs, both by nervous connection and continuity of surface.

So frequently has this fatal course been noticed that all those who are thoroughly conversant with the subject now look upon catarrh as a premonition and one of the very earliest manifestations of consumption.

Every case of catarrh is curable if properly treated.

The People's Store

Is sure of one thing, that it has sold goods cheaper than any store in town. The increase and present size of our business shows that. What we have sold goods at heretofore is no comparison to what we are selling now. Our goods are all bargains compared to what we sold them at before. We have cut loose from all jobbing merchants in the country and save their ten, fifteen and twenty-five per cent. that all other dealers have to pay because they haven't the cash and don't use the quantity.

We buy our goods at the mills or of the commission merchant, who sells the mill's products and the terms are 2 per cent. off for cash in ten days from the date of purchase. It takes twenty days for the goods to get here, so they are paid for ten days before we get them. How many houses in Los Angeles do this? We discount all our bills, and that alone gives us a standing in the market that enables us to buy cheaper than our competitors.

NOTE THE DIFFERENCE IN PRICES:

We sell to-day a fancy towel 20x40 inches, called a basket pattern, at 12½c that we sold before at 25c.

A Russian bathing towel at 10c that we sold stacks of at 20c, and ran them off in cases on our center tables at 15c.

Fruit Doylies, all linen, at 25c a dozen that we sold on center tables as an immense bargain at 45c.

White Damask Doylies with red border, beautiful designs, 85c a dozen, sold before for $1.50.

Our entire line of 5c Lawns, not the mosquito netting, will be sold at 3c.

Our entire line of half wool, solid color, lace bunting 5c a yard that we have sold as high as 25c.

An elegant line of Satins, large patterns, goods that sold for 37½c a yard, selling to-day at 12½c.

Ladies' Gauze Vests in high neck, long or short sleeves, are selling to-day at 25c, formerly sold at 45c.

Shetland Shawls in different colors at 68c. There's no use talking, they are the best values anybody ever offered for the money, worth heretofore $1.25.

A line of 150 pieces of all wool dress goods, 44 inches wide, in every shade imaginable, at 50c a yard; goods that sold at 75c and $1 a yard.

We offer especial bargains in Table Linen, in Embroideries, in Linen Laces, Oriental Laces, etc., etc. These goods have been marked out for the purpose of selling them, and the price will do it. Come in and see what we have on display at specially reduced prices. We can't enumerate each article. We are going to sell Lawns, Muslins and Ginghams, Dress and Apron Check styles at reduced rates. We are working off $50,000 worth of stock that we have (not in our imagination) but in our stores.

The Leading Issues.

IN one sense the extra session of the Legislature is a high court of trial—the Supreme Judges being the defendants.

It is one of the anomalies of our judicial system that the opinion of one Supreme Judge often determines the law in the most important issues. The riparian decision is to the point. The Justices stood four to three, so that any one of the four could have turned the scale the other way. It seems to us that it should require greater unanimity in the court of last resort to determine a case of this magnitude. Majorities sometimes are right; but we confess to a growing prejudice to these terribly close calls. We never did think much of 8 to 7, and now we are equally disgusted with 4 to 3.

THE action of Governor Stoneman in calling an extra session of the Legislature is the topic of the day. People who do their own thinking, and who have been close observers of events, have formed conclusions favorable to the action of the Governor. They see clearly that the recent decision of the Supreme Court sustaining the riparian doctrine had precipitated a crisis upon the State which could only be met by an extraordinary session of the representatives of the people. But the Governor, with commendable foresight and statesmanship, was careful not to make this important move until he had received assurances from two-thirds of the members of both Houses that they were willing to vote favorably upon the several points set forth in the proclamation. It would have been unwise to have put the State to the expense of an extra session if the members were opposed to the legislation required. The weak point was the Senate. That body at the last session voted against the measure presented by the Executive Committee of the Fresno Convention; and yet a large majority of the Senators declared themselves to be in favor of irrigation laws on principle. But the series of bills before them were objected to for various reasons, the dominating one being that the rights of irrigators themselves were not sufficiently protected in these bills from the monopoly of ditch-owners. It was feared that, under these measures, the canal proprietors would be enabled to exercise the power of ownership over water, and thus reduce the small farmers to a dependent condition. They therefore demanded that the fact of appropriation should not carry with it the ownership of the water of the streams, but that a solemn declaration should be engrafted upon the laws of the State recognizing the fundamental principle that the water of the State belonged to the people of the State, and could only be subjected to a public use for the benefit of the people. The State would thus be always in a position to rectify any serious evil that might arise. But it was apparent that the water question was too large a question to be properly dealt with in a regular session in which every member had other subjects which he wished legislated upon. And this brings us down to the fact that the Governor acted with wisdom in calling a special session to be devoted to this one great subject. If the members will devote themselves with a singleness of purpose to the object for which they are convened, they will solve the great problem placed before them in a wise and patriotic manner, and start the State out on a new era of prosperity. It is understood that thirty-one Senators have pledged themselves to vote in favor of legislation covering the seven subjects designated in the proclamation. If that is the case, the session will be a short and successful one.

The recent riparian decision of the Supreme Court threatens the destruction of hundreds of millions of property, and this danger has come home to so many people that the first step to carry the decision to its logical enforcement would have been the signal for a conflict between the people and the authorities that might have led to serious and bloody consequences. The successful enforcement at this time of an injunction for a few weeks only upon the appropriators of the Santa Ana or San Gabriel rivers alone, would have resulted in ruin to all the vineyards and orchards depending upon the waters of those streams for irrigation. This and the next two months constitute the crucial period of the year to irrigators, and therefore the very first bill passed by the extra session ought to be one to stay all proceedings under the recent riparian decision. This done, the Legislature can take up the questions of water rights and water distribution. The sovereignty of the State over the waters of the State should be sacredly preserved. No private ownership can be tolerated. With this reservation, whatever legislation experience may prove to be noxious can be remedied. If ownership in water can be maintained vested rights will follow, and whoever can successfully assert proprietorship in this element will be enabled to return all irrigators depending upon it to the condition of serfs. This would be fraught with even worse consequences than any that could ensue from the riparian doctrine; for that doctrine would distribute the water rights amongst many, whilst the other would confine it to great wealthy monopolies that would grind every small farmer under their giant heels. We take it that the principle of reserving the State's control over the waters of the State will prevail. The question of distribution will then be the only serious problem to deal with. A general law providing the machinery for erecting into water districts territory so situated as to be easily irrigated by accessible streams, and empowering Supervisors, Township officers, Water Commissioners duly appointed, or Town Trustees to decide upon the distribution or the cost of water, governed, of course, by the cost of the works, would give to the people all the legislation now required to secure their rights. Upon these bases a system of water laws or regulations would naturally build themselves, and the experience of each district would in time establish customs adapted to its need. Over-legislation is almost as much to be dreaded as no legislation at all. The enunciation of a great fundamental principle governing the control of water for the use of the people, and a law enabling the people of the several vicinages to form water districts; these, with the outlines of authority delegated to the municipal corporations to regulate the distribution and cost of water, are all that are needed to place the irrigation interests of our State on a firm and lasting basis.

But we cannot hope that personal interest will be laid aside in this great controversy, and the public weal alone be considered. The riparianists will make a determined fight to prevent any infraction or invasion of the vantage ground the decision of the Supreme Court has given them. They are powerful in two great elements of strength in legislatures—money and brains. The canal corporations, that would like to secure to themselves the unquestioned ownership of the water, are also powerful in these two elements of strength. Between these two contending parties comes the balance of power of the irrigators proper. It is the interests of these which we all hope to see completely conserved. They form the great mass of the productive people of the State, and upon their welfare the prosperity of the State itself depends. They will have brave and able champions upon the floors of both Houses, and their success will be the harbinger of an era of almost unlimited progress to the entire commonwealth.

THE Associated Press seems determined to elect a Senator in place of George Hearst. For all that the chances are ten to one that the sitting Senator will stay where he is and that the election of a successor to him will not take place and would not be legal, if it did. Great stress has been laid upon the third section of Article I, of the Constitution of the United States and very little attention has been paid to section 4, Article IV., of the same instrument, which practically commits the time, mode, &c., of the election of United States Senators to the several States. The Constitution of California restricts the action of a special session to matters particularized by the Governor in his proclamation, and the election of a United States Senator is not one of these. Superadded to all is the impossibility of getting a joint session of the Legislature, with the casting vote in the Senate in the hands of John Daggett, and the further fact that the Republican "slickens" Senators can never be induced to unseat George Hearst, who has lately rendered them inestimable services. We observe that the Chronicle seems to have dropped its sensation. There is nothing in it.

IF our memory serves us right the present City Council and municipal government were elected upon the issues of retrenchment and reform. We had a pretty instance of the actual working of the system in the action of that body Monday in appropriating $1,000 for Mr. W. T. Williams for services as extra counsel to assist City Attorney McKinley in the opening of Los Angeles street. Mr. McKinley was chosen City Attorney to do these things himself, and not to delegate them to another, at a large expense to the taxpayers. The citizens who pay Mr. McKinley, expect a real and not a vicarious service.

DAY DISPATCHES.

ST. LOUIS, July 20.—A Santa Maria, Texas, correspondent of the Globe-Democrat telegraphs that parties from the other side of the Rio Grande report that a gang of outlaws from this side, under Gen. Antonio Milatead, entered Pelades, outraged some women and robbed citizens of their horses and arms. They also report that six prisoners were captured yesterday by government troops and that three were hang. Several peaceable rancheros from Mexico have crossed over the river to this side with their horses and arms. Sheriff Baits and party returned to-day from Barrancas and report that a large drove of horses gathered by the bandits on the other side, and which was intended to be crossed at Barrancas last night, had been turned loose by the thieves. Another dispatch to the Globe-Democrat says: A private dispatch received at New Laredo to-day reports that a fight occurred at Matamoras, Mex., yesterday and the greatest excitement prevails.

Another Town Burned.

FRESNO, July 20.—The town of Madera was destroyed by fire last night. The loss is reported very heavy. No particulars are yet received.

It broke out at 11:45 last night in the rear of the Williams' block on Yosemite avenue and spread rapidly to adjoining buildings, taking Mace's Hotel to the west and a row of wooden buildings to the east. A strong wind was blowing and the flames crossed the avenue, attacking the Arlington Hotel, a long wooden structure, Creslin's saloon, Conway's stable and several minor buildings, and was here checked. The town was almost entirely without facilities for extinguishing the flames, and the wonder is that the fire was checked so soon. Twelve buildings were burned. Following is an estimate of the losses and insurance. H. S. Williams, $30,000, insurance, $16,900; R. P. Mace, $16,000; Insurance, $8,500. The other losses amount in aggregate to over $22,000, about half insured.

ROBUST HEALTH

Is not always enjoyed by those who seem to possess it. The taint of corrupted blood may be secretly undermining the constitution. In time, the poison will certainly show its effects, and with all the more virulence the longer it has been allowed to permeate the system. Each pimple, sty, boil, skin disorder and sense of unnatural lassitude, or languor, is one of Nature's warnings of the consequences of neglect.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is the only remedy that can be relied upon, in all cases, to eradicate the taint of hereditary disease and the special corruptions of the blood. It is the only alterative that is sufficiently powerful to thoroughly cleanse the system of Scrofulous and Mercurial impurities and the pollution of Contagious Diseases. It also neutralizes the poisons left by Diphtheria and Scarlet Fever, and enables rapid recuperation from the enfeeblement and debility caused by these diseases.

Myriads of Cures

Achieved by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, in the past forty years, are attested, and there is no blood disease, at all possible of cure, that will not yield to it. Whatever the ailments of this class, and wherever found, from the scurvy of the Arctic circle to the "veldt-sores" of South Africa, this remedy has afforded health to the sufferers by whom it was employed. Druggists everywhere can cite numerous cases, within their personal knowledge, of remarkable cures wrought by it, where all other treatment had been unavailing. People will do well to

than AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Numerous crude mixtures are offered to the public as "blood purifiers," which only allure the patient with the pretense of many cheap doses, and with which it is folly to experiment while disease is steadily becoming more deep-seated and difficult of cure. Some of these mixtures do much lasting harm. Bear in mind that the only medicine that can radically purify the vitiated blood is Government Bonds and Railway Shares.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Government bonds were quiet and steady to-day.

New York and New England still continues to be the leading card at the Stock Exchange. Louisville and Nashville assumed a prominent position both as to activity and strength and advanced sharply. The reduction of rates of sterling exchange was looked upon as an indication of an increase of purchases of securities in this market, to say nothing of the creation of gold exports, and talk is heard of a movement of the latter metal to this country in the near future. The general list continues dull as of late. The market was firm at opening. The result of the day's business is an advance for everything on the active list, Louisville and Nashville and New York and New England both gaining 1% and Erie preferred 1%.

BEAUTIFUL, CENTRAL RESIDENCE PROPERTY

Immediately adjoining the City Centre Tract, Eleventh, Twelfth and Pico Sts. Only 2 Blocks west of Pearl St.

The last first-class homestead for sale; located in the heart of the city, and level with Main and Spring streets.

Rails now being laid for the Electric Motor Road on Pico street. Cars will be running in sixty days.

Twelve minutes from Postoffice. Street Cars to Pico and Pearl streets, within one and a half blocks. Electric Motor Railway past the entire front of these lots. Elegant improvements, streets with planked sidewalks with ornamental trees to be planted the entire length on both sides. Four beautiful villa residences, masts with Electric Lights without charge. Distribution of lots, 6th of November of this year, and all improvements made and possession given at that time. Immediately adjoining the City Centre Tract lots, recently sold to the leading business people of Los Angeles.

The WILLIAMSON TRACT, 188 LOTS.

This offering of first-class lots for residences in the midst of the handsomest improvements in Los Angeles will be the LAST OPPORTUNITY to acquire centrally located lots at the owner's price per acre. Three hundred and ninety dollars is a nominal sum and the payments are extended over one and a half years without interest. The location is within twelve minutes of the Postoffice, with two lines of street cars (the Hellman line and the Electric Motor Railway directly to the property.

The success of the Homesteads of the Southern California Land Company is strictly owing to the low rate at which its properties are placed before the public and the fact that it only offers first-class city locations. This Company points with just pride to the Childs Tract, Columbia Colony, Urmston Tract and the City Centre Tract, the latter immidiately adjoining the present lots.

A new feature of this beautiful property will be the planting of all the streets with large ornamental shade trees. A nursery of 4,500 splendid trees of large size is already on the tract to be set out in the Fall.

Careful gardeners will be employed by the Company to take charge of them for one year.

Four Handsome VILLA RESIDENCES to be erected. They will be all elegantly finished inside in Eastlake style, even to the kitchens. The houses will be 32x43, parlor and chamber, with sliding doors, dining room, large hall, spacious kitchen, bath room and porticoes.

There Are No Narrow Streets and No Side Lots.

Every street is 60 feet wide.

The masts for the ELECTRIC LIGHTS are now being erected. These masts, being four in number on the City Centre and this Tract, will illumine every lot and residence with a flood of light; an ornament, a necessity and a safeguard.

PLANKED SIDEWALKS, four feet wide, with substantial stringers 2x4, will be placed on each side of every street.

Think of the Location, Eleventh to Pico, and but two blocks from Pearl street.

The sale of this tract is on the Homestead plan. The land is sold as an entirety, and delivered over to the subscribers with all

Without further charge than the amount received in the aggregate from the subscribers, each one of whom has a vested right in the entire tract.

The meeting of the subscribers for the distribution of these lots is fixed for November 8th, 1886. They agree to a mode of distribution (according to the Homestead Laws of 1862) on the same plan as that of the Childs Tract, the Urmston Tract and the City Centre Tract.

The street railway on Pearl street, at the corner of Pico street, is within two block of the tract, and in sixty days Colonel Howland's Electric Motor Road will be completed on Pico street past this entire property.

LEGAL HOMESTEADS.

The best lawyers in Los Angeles state that the Childs Tract, Urmston Tract, City Centre Tract and Williamson Tract Homesteads, conform strictly to the law of the State making a division of the property among the purchasers—each purchaser holding a vested right in the whole tract until the meeting for subdivision of interests. jy23-tf

A Captain's Fortunate Discovery

Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth, plying between Atlantic City and New York, had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It not only gave him instant relief but allayed the extreme soreness in his breast. His children were similarly affected and a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household and on board the schooner. Free trial bottles of this standard remedy at C. F. Heinzeman's drug store.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

A SURE CURE FOUND AT LAST!

NO ONE NEED SUFFER.

A sure cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams (an Indian Remedy), called Dr. Williams's Indian Pile Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic case of 25 or 30 years' standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electuaries do more harm than good. Williams's Indian Pile Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching, (particularly at night after getting warm in bed), acts as a poultice, gives instant relief, and is prepared only for Piles, itching of the private parts; and for nothing else.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry of Cleveland says about Dr. Williams's Indian Ointment: "I have used scores of Pile Cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. Williams's Indian Ointment." Restful Nights, Days Free From Torture.

Await the rheumatic sufferer who resorts to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. That this benignant cordial and depurent is a far more reliable remedy than colchicum and other poisons used to expel the rheumatic virus from the blood, is a fact that experience has satisfactorily demonstrated. It also enjoys the advantage of being—unlike them—perfectly safe. With many persons a certain predisposition to rheumatism exists, which renders them liable to its attacks after exposure to wet weather, to currents of air, changes in temperature, or to cold when the body is hot. Such persons should take a wine glass or two of the Bitters as soon as possible after incurring risk to the above causes, as this superb protective effectually nullifies the hurtful influence. For the functional derangements which accompany rheumatism, such as colic, spasms in the stomach, palpitation of the heart imperfect digestion, etc., the Bitters is also a most useful remedy. It is only necessary in obstinate cases to use it with persistency.

Shooting in San Bernardino.

Two Mexicans, Francisco Campo and Lucio Lopez, yesterday while engaged in a game of cards in one of the cabins on the bottom east of town, got into a dispute that considerably riled both of them. Finally Campo started off, but when outside the cabin turned, and putting the muzzle of his pistol through a hole in the door, fired at Lopez. The ball struck Lopez on the cheek and striking the bone ranged downward until it finally dropped into his mouth, making a wound which may or may not be dangerous. Campo was arrested and lodged in jail, and this morning was bound over in the sum of $2000 in Recorder Morgan's court to appear at the fall term of the Superior Court. In default of bail he is now lying in the county jail.—[San Bernardino Times, 19th.

A Remarkable Tribute.

Sidney Ourchondro, of Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "I have used Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs many years with the most gratifying results. The relieving influence of Hall's Balsam is wonderful. The pain and rack of the body, incid nt to a tight cough, soon disappear by the use of a spoonful according to directions. My wife frequently sends for Hall's Balsam instead of a physician, and health is speedily restored by its use."

Cakes of Figs

May be made first by scalding the ripe fruit in hot lye, as heretofore directed, then dripping the lye off and slowly stewing the figs to a smooth pulp in a porcelain kettle, adding a little sugar and flavoring and stirring the mass carefully while cooking. When thoroughly done and reduced to a smooth mass or pulp, free from lumps, pour into shallow pans or fancifully-shaped molds and dry slowly in a kiln or drying-house. When dry and cool wrap each cake in white paper and store away in a cool and dry place. These cakes may be broken and stewed over again at pleasure or eaten from the hand like dried figs or dates.

Another San Bernardino Fire.

This morning about a quarter after four, the fire alarm bell again aroused our people from their sleep and called them forth to battle with the fiery element. The circumstances of this fire are very singular and show conclusively that it is a case of incendiarism. The house was one lately purchased by Mr. T. A. Caser of Mr. Byrne, on D street, opposite the old county hospital. There has been no fire of any kind in the house since Saturday, Mr. Carter and his wife having gone on the excursion early yesterday morning, and had taken breakfast at the house of the father of Mrs. Carter, Mr. J. L. Tipton.

The fire spread very rapidly, indeed it hurried so fast that when Mr. Tipton, living next door, was awakened the roof was just falling in, by which it would seem that it was started in different places. Nothing was saved, as the flames had got under too much headway before the first persons arrived, and when the door was broken in the fire met them on the threshold. The loss was at least $2600, which would hardly replace it. On this there is $1100 insurance, held by M. Byrne on the Royal, Norwich Union and Lancashire Insurance Company.

Mr. Tipton also lost some valuable fruit trees, which grew just across the line on his lot.—[S. B. Times, July 19.

The Original

Abietine Ointment is put up in two ounce tin boxes, and is an absolute cure for old sores, ulcers, burns, wounds, salt rheum, fever sores, chapped hands and all skin eruptions. Will positively cure all kinds of piles. Ask for the Original Abietine Ointment, in two ounce boxes. Price 25 cents. For sale by Preuss & Hance, Druggists, 77 and 79 N. Spring street.

Pickling Figs.

Gather the figs when fully swollen, but not quite ripe, leaving the stems on. Soak them ten or twelve hours in moderately strong brine (salt and water). Take them out of this brine, rinse with clear water, and place in glass or stone jars. Have a kettle of pure, strong, genuine cider vinegar, or white wine vinegar, add a pound of fair brown sugar to each gallon of this vinegar, with such spices as you choose for flavoring. Place this kettle of vinegar over the fire, stirring and dissolving the sugar, and when the vinegar comes to a simmer pour it over the figs, covering them about an inch. Place a small piece of horseradish root in the top of the jar, cover close, set away in a cool place, and they will keep a year or two—if not sooner eaten. This pickle is very superior and highly popular wherever known.

Governor's Proclamation.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA.
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
SACRAMENTO, JULY 16, 1886. }

To the Senate and Assembly of the State of California:

In my judgement an extraordinary occasion has arisen which renders it expedient and necessary for the public welfare that the Legislature should be called together. The Supreme Court of the State in a recent decision announced that the Riparian owners along the innavigable streams in California owned the flowing waters in such streams and are entitled to the exclusive right to use the same. The wide spread disaster which this decision threatens to the agricultural interests, and the consequent general excitement and apprehension make it proper that the legislative and executive branches of the government should take prompt and efficient action to prevent the injurious consequences which will otherwise inevitably flow from the establishment of such a rule of law by the highest court in the commonwealth, under the sanction of the laws and customs which prevailed in California, when it was acquired from Mexico; under the protective policy of the National and State Government, and in harmony with the climatic and physical characteristics of the country, a splendid system of irrigation has grown up since the American occupation. The flowing waters were deemed public property and were considered as dedicated to the use of the people. The right to appropriate water for irrigation was regulated by custom and by statute law. Most of the soil of California was public land of the United States, but Congress expressly sanctioned the custom of appropriation and diversion of water expressly authorized it upon the public domain. The practice of irrigation was thus allowed to become general and marked the progress of the agricultural development of the State. The larger part of the great valley of California and most of the southern portion of the State were in a desert condition, owing to the aridity of climate and soil. Irrigation has transformed large areas of this splendid domain into luxuriant fields, vineyards and orchards; hundreds of millions of taxable property have been created many thousands of happy homes have been planted; colonies, villages and towns have sprung up and an intelligent and industrious population has been invited from abroad to develop the resources of the State. The agricultural prosperity already achieved and the future possibilities of Southern California and of the great valley, which comprises much the larger part of the arable land of the State have depended and will depend upon the ability of the people to use the waters of the State for irrigation. The majority of the Judges of the Supreme Court have announced that any riparian proprietor may obtain an injunction against any person not a riparian proprietor, to prohibit him from appropriating, diverting or using water from the stream above his land. Under this ruling the ditches and canals which are the arteries of the agricultural life of the State may be closed by writs from the courts, and that, too, upon ex parte application, without notice or warning or opportunity of being heard until after irretrievable damage has been done. Many such suits are now pending. Writs of injunction have been asked for, and in some cases obtained, but have not been obeyed. Should an attempt be make to enforce them and others, which are likely to issue, as is apprehended, serious trouble may ensue, because the people may resist to prevent the desolation of their homes, farms, vineyards and orchards. But if they should not—if they should peaceable submit, still the injury to the State would be immeasurable. To suspend irrigation for one season would destroy thousands of homes and millions of property. Other Western and Pacific States having an arid climate similar to our own, have conformed their organic and statute laws to the necessities and requirements of their condition in this regard. Manifestly that course is demanded in California. In view of these considerations, and particularly of the ruin and disaster which seem likely to flow from the enforcement of the doctrine recently announced by the Supreme Court as to water rights, it seems to me imperative that the executive and the legislature should take immediate action to confirm to the people the right to a free use of the flowing waters, which is essential to their prosperity and to the welfare of the State. Another matter of great public concern is the reorganization of the Supreme Court. The existing system has not given satisfaction and the evils are growing worse. It is cumbersome to a degree. The business is in arrears notwithstanding the creation of a Commission to assist the Judges. The plan of dividing the Court into Departments has not worked well. It leads to the necessity of "hearing" cases twice over. A litigant defeated before a minority of the Court appeals to the Judges in bank, and the whole work must be gone over. The system is perplexing and unsatisfactory to everybody. And, furthermore, the salaries paid to the Judges of the Supreme Court are too small. Lawyers eminent in their profession cannot accept the places without making a sacrifice, which the State ought not to require. But the compensation now provided cannot be increased during the incumbency of the present Judges. In my judgment the Court should be reorganized. The system of departments should be abolished. A Court constituted of a compact body of Judges will accomplish more. Their pay should be increased so as to secure the best talent in the State.

Now, therefore, I, George Stoneman, Governor of the State of California, deeming that an extraordinary occasion has arisen, by virtue of the power in me vested by the constitution of the State, do hereby convene the Legislature to meet and assemble at the State Capitol on the 20th day of July, 1886, at 12 o'clock M. of that day, and I do hereby specify the following subjects upon which it is assembled to legislate:

First—To propose and submit to the people of the State an amendment or amendments to Article XIV. of the Constitution of the State relative to water and water rights.

Second—To propose and submit to the people of the State such amendment or amendments to the Constitution of the State as may be necessary or proper to secure to the people the right of appropriation, diversion and use, of flowing water for irrigation or other beneficial purposes, and as may be necessary or proper to protect all such rights in the Courts of the State.

Third. To enact all laws necessary or proper to protect the people of the State in the full and free enjoyment of the right to appropriate, divert and use flowing water in the State for irrigation or other beneficial purposes, and so as to fully protect all such rights in the courts.

Fourth. To repeal Section 1422 of the Civil Code.

Fifth. To propose and submit to the people of the State an amendment or amendments to article VI of the Constitution of the State relative to the Judicial Department, so far as it relates to the Supreme Court.

Sixth. To enact a law to provide for submitting the Constitutional Amendments proposed to a vote of the people.

Seventh. To provide by appropriation for the expenses of holding an election for the ratification or rejection of such proposed amendments to the Constitution.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed at my office in the city of Sacramento, this 16th day of July, 1886.

GEORGE STONEMAN, Governor.
Attest: THOS. L. THOMPSON, Secretary of State.

Prospect for Genuine Sport Next Week.

RECORD OF THE RACES.

A Fine Showing to be Made—Points For the Benefit of Sporting Men—General Notes.

Killip & Co. will be on hand and sell each day at the Park, and in the evening at Reid's. They will introduce a new system of Paris pools, in vogue on all tracks East (new this year). Will sell Paris pools on each heat, and pay on result of same, settling same at once.

We give an extended resume of the flyers at the track, showing that the Turf Club have succeeded in at least bringing a large field of racers together.

The route, (out Sixth, Pearl and Figueroa), thanks to whom we know not, affords a delightful drive, and for the first time in three years we can safely say affords a delightful drive; no dust, no ruts, and plenty of shade.

At the park all is cleanly—neatly whitewashed fences, flower gardens, and all in keeping with the genial proprietor, our well known Johnny Griffis. The track is perfect, and it is not boasting to announce it the fastest track on the coast. Last, but not least, the refreshment appointments are perfect. Parlors and dining-room are gems of neatness; the bar unsurpassed anywhere.

First, Page's b. s. Max, aged, by Echo, too well known in our community to require more than notice.

Second, Blackbird, Jr., by Blackbird, dam by John Morgan, a black stallion, aged. This horse is a half brother to A. W. Richmond. As a performer he has yet to make his record.

Third, g. g. Judge King, aged. This is an importation from bluegrass, and is trotting low down. We think our sport lovers had better keep an eye on him. He is owned by Col. Tom Mott, treasurer of the Turf Club.

Fourth, an aged bay gelding, 16 hands high. He is showing well and looks every inch a trotter, if ownership amounts to anything. Nick Covarrubias is the "lucky man."

Fifth, a beautiful black stallion, Rajah 2, by Sultan; dam, Kitty Wilkes; yearling, record 2:55 at Sacramento. He was "let" into the three minute class for the Fair races, and bids fair to be a winner.

Sixth, next White's Ines, ch. s., 5, by Ines, dam by Black Warrior, a San Bernardino horse that has made the boys happy at a 45 gait.

Seventh, br. g. Contractor, by Sultan, dam by Overland. Our people know him well and expect much of him. He is owned by C. R. Pickett, a prominent builder, and has a record as a two year-old of 2:49.

Eighth is a fine bay stallion, 3, by Chieftain, dam unknown; points show good breeding. Everything is so dark concerning him that some fast work must be looked for when the proper time comes.

Ninth, b. m. Lady I., aged, by Billy Norfolk, dam by Longfellow. She is well known here. Has no record, but can do a mile in 33. The organ-man, Gardner, on Spring street, owns her.

Tenth, b. c. Brant, 2, by Anteo, dam by Owen Dale. Record to make, but is fast sure. His owner, our popular Elias Williams, familiarly known as Doc, has the most formidable string on the ground.

Sheriff and turf patron, Geo. E. Gard.

Eleventh, a two-year-old bay colt, by Jerry Ladd, dam by Humboldt, a half brother to Hunter, the noted Santa Ana trotter, owned by R. J. Blee, of that place.

Twelfth, a four-year-old br. s. by Prince, dam by the Moor. A splendid piece of horseflesh, on the quiet. He trots quarters close to 40, and with a little more work will make his owner, Dr. Burbank, very happy by lowering that figure considerably.

Next we find S. B. Stroud's stable of Norwalk;

First, b. s. Jim Polk, 5, dam by Hercules.

Second, b. g. Amazon, 4, by Bowbocks. Both of these animals are Los Angeles favorites and will be heard from.

David Bridges reports stock in good shape. Scott McCurdy, jockey. We found

First, roan gelding Eclipse, by Baby; owned by Sanchez Bros., of Old Mission. It is enough to say this horse has the fastest quarter-mile and repeat record for the United States.

Second, Bay s. Dublin Bay, 5, by Grinstead, dam by Amanda Fortune. He made his first appearance on this track in the famous stallion colt race in 1883, when he ran well up with the winner, St. David, and that with little or no training.

Thomas Alvarado, of Monteserrat, San Diego county, has stable representative in a s. s. Comet, 5, by Hookhocking; has never made a record, but is a candidate at the coming races to open Thursday.

Al Moran, another San Diegan, represents his stable by b. f. Carmalita, by Hardwood, dam by Shiloh. She is a beauty and if breeding is anything she has a lean on the Introduction stakes.

B. F. Hill's stable, James Brown, trainer; J. Clifford, head jockey; six horses; the largest string of thoroughbreds at the park. First of note is b. c. Robert the Kid, 3, by Hardwood, dam Maid of the Mist; raised in Ventura county. As a 2-year old has run some good races both here and above, but has never won anything on this track.

Next, ch. c. Mikado, 2, by Shiloh, dam by Error. He makes his bow in the introduction race and looks a winner. All depends on who gets there, however.

Third, g. g. Johnny Grey, aged. He should be named "Old Reliable,"—and many live in our midst whom the little gray has made happy. Pool tickets with Johnny Grey's name on are never torn up.

Fourth, ch. g. Adam, 4 years, by Reville, dam Maudy Adams, untried, but like his ancient predecessor is liable to come first.

Fifth, g. f. Mollie Capron, 3 years, by Reville, dam of same name. She ran some close races alone, but was under the weather last fall, hence paid forfeit and failed to start.

Sixth—and last, b. f. Meda Howard, 3 years, by Sacramento; has made some good time, but has generally been outclassed. She has picked her company this time, however, and will take good care of her stable colors—black and white, and red and orange, sky blue cap.

Thomas Stratton, of San Diego, is represented by a blk. f. Minnie Stratton, 3 years, by Reville. She ran second in three races as a two-year-old. Her strong racing form is just about as she now is.

John J. Reynolds, has a string of trotters, one of the largest stables at the Park, and every one at work; not one in the hospital.

First, b. g. Hesperion, 5 years, by Satellite, dam by Valley Belle, owned by S. T. Underhill of Santa Barbara.

Second, Black stallion Hambletonian, Bradshaw mare; he is just here, but is a horse worth watching, owned by Chas. Haskell of Pasadena.

Third, J. Bixby's b. g. Jotham Bixby 3rd, by Silver Heels, dam by Black Warrior; has had but little work but can turn a mile handy in 2:40.

Fourth, Reynold's blk. s. H. M. J. by Richmond, three years old, dam by Overland; he is a good one, and will be heard from.

Fifth, Dodsworth's two-year-old filly by A. W. Richmond, dam Hambletonian mare; she is doing good work for a youngster.

Sixth, a c Gladstone, a suckling, and one of the best and largest colts in this section; if he lives to acquire a year he will pull some around the mystic circle very lively.

Seventh, br. c. Parnell, also suckling, by H. M. J., dam by Echo; also a good one.

Eighth, C. A. Durfee, the trotting man, has Zero, b. g., aged by Hercules; this is a companion and the hero of many a hard fought race.

Second, black s., Black Diamond, 4, by Sultan, dam by Tenbroeck; no record.

Third, b. g. Geronimo, 5, by Inca, dam by Sacramento; no record.

Fourth, b. m. Lady E, 5, by Billy Norfolk, owned by John W. Gardner. No record but can trot fast.

Fifth, Dick J., b. g. aged, by McLellan. Record, 2:30; everybody knows him.

Sixth, blk. s., Del Sur. No introduction necessary.

Seventh, g. g. What Ho, 4, by A. W. Richmond, dam Kate W., by Overland. The boys seem to have some tips on this fellow, but—well, we won't give them away.

Eighth, b. b. Cooney, 2, by Dashwood, dam Geraldime, by Echo. No record.

Jno. D. Young is training his s. s. Young America at home, and is making a racer of him.

The Machado Bros. are working several thoroughbreds at their private track at La Ballona. The stable includes some very fast ones.

A. J. Hutchinson is training his flyers the get of the famous sires Hardwood and Hookhocking, at his private track at La Cienega.

Gardiner's Fannie G. is being handled for the Club races at San Bernardino.

Our thanks are due to those in charge, from the genial Hart Griffis of the Club House to the lightest weight jockey. If it was the human race to be run next week we should like to have these people run it.

FRUIT CANNING BUSINESS.

Interesting Information About Fruit and Fruit and Vegetable Canning.

EDITOR HERALD: By request I will give in a few lines the leading facts and features of the fruit crop of the present season. We have just finished up at the factory on apricots. We have taken in nearly one hundred tons, and would have reached 150 tons had it not been for the ravages of the pest that so suddenly came and went in the shape of a small bug something like the fire-fly of the States. The crop of the county will be on that account short of our estimate, 250 tons. We have done well and all who have had good fruit have done well. Notwithstanding the uncalled for assault made on our veracity in a leading cotemporary of yours some two weeks since, we were so engrossed in business that we did not take the time to reply to it. We did say to all where buying that there was a good crop of apricots, and also that large contracts had been made before at $20 a ton; so there was, still with the ravages of the bugs which cut us short to some extent, the price paid by us for full crops delivered at the factory, $40 per ton, was a good price, while by our using so many tons made the retail market good and brought good and fancy prices to those who had small lots, wherein if we had thrown what we canned on the market, they would have been a drug at one cent a pound. The berry crop for raspberries is only half a crop, although we have made a good pack, while for blackberries the crop is going to be large. We will use about forty tons in all. The Bartlett pear crop is a failure and we do not expect to be able to get any here to can at all. Have sent north for our broker to buy us 50 to 100 tons, if he can secure good stock. They are favored with a large crop, we understand. Peaches we will have all we need for home consumption and also for us to make a good pack. Will be about half a full crop, which will be one-fourth more than last season. While some sections are very short others will have plenty, and when September fruit comes there will be plenty for all. Nectarines will be all that will be needed, as the demand for them is light. Greengage plums, short, while the Damsons, Imperial and French prunes will be half a crop. Grapes, good everywhere and the indications point to good prices for all varieties.

Apples will be a short crop—will not be enough to supply home demand. Cause same as the pear crop—failure. The excessive warm weather in February, followed by the long cold spell which caused the sap to start and then sour, and by the time new and healthy sap was formed was out of season for the bloom. All orchards the county over [illegible] good growths and healthy [illegible] no doubt for the next three to five years we will have good crops, and good fruit will always from now on command good prices. We could to-day sell goods ahead to pack if we could be guaranteed a supply for three years ahead. Such goods as lemon [illegible] ange clings, Bartlett pears, Golden Drop plums, etc., have the world for a market. As to vegetables, we will pack only string beans and tomatoes this season, using about fifty tons of string beans and about 300 to 500 tons of tomatoes. Nothing will pay the farmer better than a few acres of tomatoes. Corn for canning is not a success here on account of slow growth and the green worm. Peas will pay anywhere any one can get plenty. We could use any amount of them if we could get them. So you will see that there is plenty of sale for all good fruit and vegetables that can be grown here, all we ask of the public is good goods and we will pay for same big prices, but we cannot build up the hard earned reputation we have gotten in the States and elsewhere with poor fruit and vegetables. Putting poor fruit inside of a tin can and sealing it never will make it any better. Hope you will pardon this extended article, and if not agreeable to you to not use it, and we will remain

Yours, respectfully,
M. WELSH.

Where Shall I Buy Lots?

Not in those Chinese gardens on Pico or Washington streets, for I remember they were all under water last winter, and very likely to be again in the same condition this winter. Ah, now I have it. I'll invest my cash in the Electric Railway Homestead Association Tract; their lots are so high and healthy; no marsh or malaria there.

Perfect Title, Perfect Health, Perfect Drainage.

If you wish all these you are referred to citizens Sentous and Vallen, who reside adjoining the Williamson Tract. They will tell you it is the healthiest locality in the city.

G. A. R. Committee.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock there was a large and active session of the General Committee on Entertainment of Grand Army Visitors for Southern California, I. W. Hellman in the chair. Secretary Weed read the following letter from Col. Goodman:

SOUTHERN PACIFIC COMPANY,
OFFICE GENERAL PASSENGER AGENT,
JULY 17th, 1886.

Mr. L. E. Mosher, General Commercial Agent, Los Angeles, Cal.:

DEAR SIR: I have just telegraphed you as follows: "Recent newspaper dispatches state that the Los Angeles people are contributing generously to a fund for the entertainment of the visiting members of the Grand Army of the Republic. Can this fund be used for a particular date should we offer very low excursion rates to induce a large number who will be here during encampment week to visit Los Angeles?"

The newspaper item I noticed yesterday, or the day before, was to the effect that the citizens of Los Angeles had already contributed something over $2000 for the purpose of entertaining G. A. Rs., but it did not state whether this sum was to be used for those who should come individually or in small parties, or for the purpose, as suggested by us, of making it an object for a large number who will be in San Francisco to visit Southern California who would not do so individually or in parties unless we should offer lower rates than we have ever done before, and which we now feel very much inclined to do. I would like to have you talk this up with your people and see what they have to say in the matter. Will you please consult with Superintendent Hewitt and other of our company's attaches? The first week of August will be taken up by the visiting G. A. Rs. with matters pertaining to the holding of the National Encampment, commencing on the evening of the 3d, or possibly not until the morning of the 4th, Tuesday; the 3d, being parade day. On the 7th a free excursion is to be given on San Francisco Bay, several boats having already been chartered for that purpose. The 9th is set apart for Oakland day, the 10th for the purpose of visiting San Jose, the 11th and 12th for an excursion to Napa valley and Sacramento, remaining over night in Sacramento and returning to this city on the evening of the 12th. By offering a regular rate for the round trip tickets, bearing a close limit, and furnishing sleeping cars at usual rate for those desiring to make use of them, it occurred to me we might send down quite a number of people, say on either Friday or Saturday evenings. I fear it would hardly do to set a later date, as by that time a large number will have returned East. Please let me know what the good people of Los Angeles interested in this matter are willing to do toward making special exertions in the way of entertaining a party, should we be able to make up one from here. The visiting G. A. R.'s resident of Los Angeles and neighborhood should all render valuable assistance in securing a large number for this particular purpose.

Very respectfully,
T. H. GOODMAN,
G. P. and T. A.

The suggestions it contained were very favorably discussed by Messrs. Gard, Boyce, Bicknell, Dunkelberger, Barrett, Bonebrake and Weed, after which Colonel Boyce presented the following which was adopted unanimously:

I. That the thanks of this committee be extended to Comrade T. H. Goodman and the company that he represents for his offer of a grand excursion from San Francisco to Southern California, and that it be accepted, with the determination to make the visit of the Grand Army Veterans a pleasure to them.

II. That Monday, August 16th, be designated as Grand Army Day in Los Angeles, and that everybody in Southern California be invited to visit this city on that day.

III. That immediate steps be taken to organize a grand entertainment for our guests on Monday evening.

The bills against the committee were presented by the secretary and referred to the Finance Committee to audit and approve.

George M. Holton and other members of the Michigan Association were present and tendered their services in assisting to entertain the delegation from that State. C. C. Davies, of the Ohio Association, made a similar offer in reference to the coming Buckeyes. On motion of Major Bonebrake, it was voted that all the State Associations be requested to appoint Reception Committees to act in conjunction with the General Committee, and to go out to meet all incoming trains bringing visiting comrades.

Col. Dunkelberger presented the following, which was adopted:

Ordered I. That the ladies of Los Angeles be invited to meet at Armory Hall on Thursday, the 22d, at 3 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of organizing for the reception to be tendered to the Grand Army veterans; that the hall be placed under their exclusive charge and that $100 be appropriated to be used as the ladies may direct.

II. That it is expected that "Open House" will be kept at Armory Hall on the 28th, 29th, 30th and 31st of this month, and on the 15th, 16th and 17th of August.

III. It is agreed that no wines or liquors shall be served in the hall during the reception of the veterans.

The finance committee reported that about $2,800 has already been secured, and asked for more assistance. L. E. Mosher, George E. Gard and M. L. Wicks were added to the committee on collections. James B. Lauck, Traveling Agent of the North Pacific Coast Railroad, was present, and expressed his desire to render all assistance in making it pleasant for our visitors. He will soon be a resident of this city.

A committee was appointed consisting of G. E. Gard and C. C. Davis to secure 100 badges for the reception committee.

On motion of Major Bonebrake it was voted that the citizens be invited to loan pictures and flags to the ladies to be used in decorating the hall.

On motion of M. L. Wicks it was voted that the City Council be requested to instruct the Chief of Police to detail officer E. A. Weed for duty at the hall, and another additional officer for July 28th to 31st, and August 15th to 17th inclusive.

On motion of Major Bonebrake it was voted that the Southern Pacific and the California Southern or Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroads be requested to give free transportation to the reception committees who go out to meet trains bearing the visiting delegations.

The General Committee then adjourned to Thursday, the 22nd instant, at 4 o'clock P. M.

Parties visiting San Francisco should bear in mind that, while the Palace Hotel is the finest and largest in the world, its rates are only the same as other first-class hotels. Its table is incomparable, and is especially looked after by Mr. Schoenwald, who has no equal in hotel management, which includes the restaurant as well as table d'hote.

AN IDAHO MAN'S EXPERIENCE.

Escaped from Piute Indians Only to be Almost Killed in Los Angeles.

Several evenings since a middle-aged gentleman, staggering under the weight of pain, called upon the eminent specialist, Dr. White, 108 North Main street. Said he: "Doctor, for God's sake give me relief, I cannot live through another night in this agony. I have had three different doctors prescribe for me within a week, and they have almost killed me."

Dr. White was at once interested in the stranger, who continued: "My name is Joseph Mayer. I live in Silver City, Idaho. I have for years suffered with nasal catarrh. Last December I went to San Francisco in search of a cure. A doctor of that city made applications to my nose which only aggravated the disease. I decided to see what effect climate would have, and went to San Diego. I met with disappointment. From San Diego I went to San Bernardino and Fall River, and finally went to work on Charles McGower's ranch, near this city. All this time my catarrh did not improve. I now noticed my stomach did not act right. It would fill up with gas, feel tender, bloated and heavy. Pretty soon the catarrh went to my bladder and kidneys, and wishing relief from the intense pain I had in the back and bladder, I came to town and had a doctor prescribe. He did not relieve me. I went to two other doctors, whose medicine I faithfully tried without getting any better. My pain was terrible. Large drops of sweat poured off of me. I walked the streets of this city, wondering if I had to die with so many doctors all around me, and not one being able to even relieve me. I have been chased by Indians near my home and have endured many hardships, but would take my chances again with them rather than come in contract with those doctors who gave me that medicine."

Dr. White examined Mr. Mayer critically. His tongue was heavily coated, appetite gone, bowels irregular, very nervous, nose and throat much inflamed, stomach and bladder in a high state of inflammation, urine red and voided with difficulty, much pain at neck of bladder, the passage of but a few drops of urine causing much burning. Mr. Mayer was furnished medicines adapted to his condition, and proper advice. Next day he reported feeling "splendid." No pain, tongue clearing, and his general condition much improved. In a few days Mr. Mayer was able to return to his home in Silver City, Idaho, he being upon the sure road to recovery. He returned home July 10th, and will perhaps never forget his narrow escape from death in our city.

CATARRH, Asthma, Bronchitis,

AND ALL DISEASES OF

Head, Throat and Lungs,

TREATED WITH

Medical Inhalations

—BY—

W. N. DAVIS, M.D.,

M. C. P. S. O.,

Graduate of Chicago Homœopathic College, Chicago; Member of College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario, Etc.

SPECIALTY:

Diseases of Ear, Nose Throat, Lungs, Diseases of Women, as well as all Chronic Complaints.

CONSUMPTION

Does not begin, as people generally think, with a cough or soreness of the lungs, but usually with debility, weakness, languor, dyspepsia, or catarrh. The most common and most fatal form is that in which tubercles are deposited in the substance of the lungs. These are small cheesy kernels, that usually lie dormant for many months, even for years, showing their presence only by shortening the breath and weakening the frame, and inducing languor and inability to walk fast, or far, or work hard.

The young wife, settling into a decline, leans more heavily on the husband's arm. Once she walked lightly with him step for step; now she leans, and complains that he walks so fast, and puts her all out of breath. She gets better for a while in brighter weather, and then without evident cause sinks lower than before; and thus rises and sinks, perhaps, many times before the tubercles ripen and rot the tissues around them, when she coughs, at first and perhaps for a long time, a dry, hacking cough; then it becomes moist and softer, and she raises matter either yellow or saltish, and perhaps offensive to the taste, or it may be frothy or glairy, like the white of an egg. It is usually looked upon as of no great account, but treated as a common cold, the patient not deigning to call in even the family physician. But even if he is called he is apt to make light of it, and advise some simple thing. The patient waits and hopes, but is annoyed to find she does not get rid of it; thinks it a bad cold, that hangs on worse than any she ever had before; coughs worse evenings and mornings, and fears she has caught more cold, but cannot account for it.

The following are the more common signs of this form of consumption: First, lassitude, or languor, or shortness of breath, with disposition to gasp or sigh or catch for breath. At this stage it is easily cured. If the patient tries the spirometer he finds that he cannot breathe an average amount, perhaps by forty or fifty inches—not that the tubercles fill so much space, but that they weaken the power of inflation and expulsion of air. Young girls, at this stage, are prone to lean on the parasol in walking, as if for a cane to support, and are disposed to loll and sit at ease, for any exertion "puts them out of breath." They like to recline on the sofa, or lounge in a rocking chair. They relinquish many of their previous and more active pleasures, and voluntarily withdraw from the dance, or skating, or amusements requiring lively or vigorous movement, and prefer to look on, rarely dreaming that the time is fast approaching when they shall even look on no more, and the dance and the skates will go on just as merrily perhaps without them. If the lungs be carefully examined with the proper instruments at this stage they sound dull under the hammer, and give no sound at all through the stethoscope over some one spot, more commonly over the middle lobe of the right lung; or instead of absence of the healthy sound, it is changed into a creaking—called crepitation—but very faint.

This sound cannot be detected through the garments, nor through any of them, nor can the dullness be detected through them with the hammer. There is no resort in the practice of medicine more absurd and pernicious than that of pretending to examine the lungs with the fingers of one hand drumming on those of the other over the chest; and what makes it still more worthless is the doing of it over garments that would utterly obscure a much louder sound than the one for which the practitioner is supposed to be listening. Such examinations beguile the patients, until the disease is so deep as to pass all hopes of recovery. Still, up to this time the ordinary duties of life are carried on as usual only with an increasing disposition to rest and sit down while at work, till the patient is often considered "more lazy than sick."

If application be made to a physician in common located practice, he declares after one of those shiftless, faulty examinations with his fingers, that the lungs are all right; only a little irritation of the tubes. Oh, this fatal blindness! The patient returns comforted, and tries, perhaps, some cough-drops or expectorant to loosen the cough, and begins to raise the "phlegm" much more easily; but after a while complains of some nausea after eating, and hollowness when hungry—the early symptoms of dyspepsia, brought on by the depressing cough drops, or troches, or expectorants, which are all made of some drug, which taken in larger doses produce sickness at the stomach as squills, ipecac, lobelia, etc. These expectorants hasten on the disease at a much accelerated rate; and complicate it with others that make it much more difficult to cure. But even at this stage, by a judicious system of inhalation, proper diet, habits, tonics and change of air, it is easily brought under control. We cannot too deeply condemn and deplore the free use of troches, cough drops, and expectorants of all kinds. They hurry many to the grave, and in others induce dyspepsia, rose catarrh or fever, hay asthma and other troubles indicative of a perverted tone of the mucous membrane. In the succeeding stages of the disease the symptoms of the preceding ones are greatly aggravated, and to these are commonly added some or all of the following: In the woman the monthly discharge cease or become scanty: the mind becomes, so to say, capricious, the hopes being at one moment unduly elated, and perhaps the next more depressed and moody, and there is a marked disposition to shed tears over touching scenes and stories, and to laugh heartily at the slightest absurdities or witticisms; the emotions become very sensitive and tender, and this is most observable at night, when a cold, clammy sweat awakens the patient from unquiet sleep, and gives reins to the wildest fancies. The lips are often observed to be purple or black and dry; a flush frequently appears on the cheek; the white of the eye becomes of a mother-of-pearl appearance; the cough deepens and extends from morning till night, and from night till morning, even sometimes continuing through sleep that brings little refreshment; the spit or sputa is salt and yellow and of bad taste, and increases in quantity from time to time, when the patient is said to catch cold; the voice becomes husky or hollow, or unduly sonorous; the periods of exercise grow shorter with the shortening breath, and less and less frequently, the walk of a few rods being sufficient to induce fatigue; the chest becomes tender, even to a slight percussion, and it is now generally conceded that the patient is in a decline, or wasting fever, or perhaps the bold word Consumption is used, and by or before this time the careless examiner—the physician who says consumption cannot be cured—recognizes the foe with which he has so long been dealing, and advises codliver oil, or the super-phosphates, or whisky and cream, or the last fashionable folly in the treatment of this dread disease, and perhaps a change of air to the south, and probably sanctions a plaster to the chest or between the shoulders, or covers these parts with croton oil or tartarized antimony. Oh, it is pitiful to see such helplessness at such a time, the last precious days in which there may be ground for hope! This soon passes: the patient lies later and later from day to day, till finally the whole day is spent in bed; and now the cough is so harrassing and the discharge so copious that the nurse holds up the patient's head that the sputa may be thrown into a cup or bowl; the appetite becomes very capricious, the stomach feeble; probably the tubercles ripen and slough in the bowels, giving rise to persistent and exhausting though mild diarrhœa. There is a constant sense of want of breath that is sometimes called being tired and weary and is attributed to the cough. Even at this late stage the patient will sometimes sit up in bed and write words of love and hope to some distant friend, and make promises of visits and talk of worldly affairs; if a woman, will speak of what she is to wear when she gets well, and how she will dress her hair, etc., and the next minute may be found in tears, as she suspects she may never recover. But why follow this declining life into the deep darkness to which it so swiftly and surely tends? All ground for hope is long since gone. It took years, perhaps, to do the work, but it is done. The reason consumption is so seldom cured is that it is not recognized till its work is so far advanced. Physicians close their eyes to it till too late to master it, or having accidentally cured it, get credit for what they have done.

INHALATION.

For years I have relied mainly for treatment of lung affections on the inhalation of medicated vapors—the drawing of the medicines into the lungs and throat directly upon the breath, and with results so uniformly happy that I probably shall never need to change for any other method.

Experience shows that medicines taken into the stomach do little good in any of these troubles. See what millions are sweeping on every year to the grave from consumption while taking every kind of drug and nostrum that can be suggested by the learned and the unlearned alike! Have we not all seen more than one go down while trusting to codliver oil? I am out of all patience at seeing doctors prescribe this and trust to it and hope for help from it. It only serves to beguile and delude unto death. Yes, it may be helpful in scrofula, as may any other fat of equally easy digestion. But it does not reach the lungs nor affect them perceptibly for good or ill. So of the various phosphates and tonics. Yes, they help to build up and strengthen; but the part needing most in these affections gets but little, and the poor patient perishes while hoping for help. I wish I could say something better for stimulants—whiskey, brandy and the like. But it is fatal to trust them. True, the patient may hope he is getting better, but he is only getting drunk.

Consumption is a delusive disease. It gives many brilliant hopes, even to the sober; how much more so to the intoxicated! No, there is no specific yet known. What are the advantages of inhalation? These: It exercises every part of the lungs, that would otherwise lie dormant, and allow the disease to extend and encroach upon healthy tissue. It carries the medicine, in its purity and strength, unimpaired by digestion, right to the affected part, and thus heals the sore and stimulates the breathing power. The results are that the earlier stages can be cured almost as readily as a common cold, and in the last stage life can be prolonged and comfort given to the patient.

HOME RULE.

Parnell and Gladstone Meeting Last Night.

AT THE GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

Addresses by Prominent Citizens—A Generous Sum Subscribed to Help Ireland.

Quite a number of the friends of Liberty assembled at the Grand Opera House last evening, the occasion being a Home Rule or Parnell and Gladstone meeting. The object was to discuss the present complications between England and Ireland, and to set on foot a movement by which substantial aid could be extended to Parnell in the present conflict, and to encourage Ireland to continue the struggle to throw off the yoke of tyranny.

On the stage were seated Dr. H. Sinsabaugh, President of the meeting, Messrs. Bresee, Spence, McGarry, Donnegan, Boyce, Waite, Fathers Hartnett and Keegan, Judge Bearden, J. C. Daley and others.

Dr. Sinsabaugh, the President of the meeting, spoke as follows:

"We are here to night that we may confer together and hear concerning the rights and wrongs of the Irish. We are bound to feel an interest in every man no matter whence he comes. The proposition before us and the world is whether Ireland is prepared to govern herself. Has she tried so long and so much in vain as not to take care of herself? Ireland has asked for what we enjoy, self-rule. There is an air of liberty about us. The trend is towards free government. I believe the good work will go on until Ireland will be made free, and there will be a partition of the soil amongst the Irish people. It is to be hoped that it will be by peaceable means." The President then introduced

COL. H. H. BOYCE,

Who spoke as follows: "We meet to night on the far-off Pacific slope to cheer on and help a cause that finds sympathy in all the world. It seems as if under the shadow of a recent defeat, but I believe the late elections to be a happy indication of a glorious victory to come, and that the majestic strength of Home Rule will yet prevail. It means that Ireland shall have a local self government by the Irish and not aliens. Other British dependencies have it. There are twenty-three Home Rule Parliaments under the British flag, and we want Ireland to be the twenty-fourth. There is nothing to startle in the proposition. Why is it that the Tories combine and manifest so much uneasiness? The land owners see that it means a complete emancipation of the wage workers; a change in the tenure of lands and which may bring about the downfall of the English aristocracy. This work was begun one hundred years ago by Henry Grattan." [Applause.] The speaker gave a resume of Grattan's career and glorious efforts, and said: "The Grattan Parliament would have been in existence to-day had it not been for the perfidious act of Union, which was a coined lie and which Irishmen never sanctioned. Ever since that act Ireland has been guarded by English police. The present movement is peaceful but powerful, but what if the fight should end in bloodshed? What would the thick-headed statesmen in England say if the Irish avail themselves of revolution? What if Parnell arouse them to run up the Emerald flag? But it will not be necessary. Peaceful measures will prevail. One million four hundred thousand votes were changed at the last election in favor of the Irish. Victory is sure to come. Irishmen you have a right to rejoice in your statesmen, heroes and soldiers, and when you get independence give due credit to the women who have shed a halo over that island by reason of their fair fame, piety and purity." [Applause.]

REV P. F. BRESEE

was the next speaker. He said he had the pleasure of addressing a meeting from this platform some time ago and "I now wish to again add my voice to yours and mingle with yours in words of help and encouragement to those who are struggling for liberty. It is not a coming question; it has already come. It has born fruit rapidly and has increased like the boom in real estate in Los Angeles and exceeded all expectations. The recent election is not the shadow of a great defeat but is the flush of the grandest victory this cause has yet known. This is not altogether an Irish question. It is an English question, and one of the brotherhood of men. It interests every man and embraces the rights of humanity. It has been in all of the reforms of the ages. No wonder Americans are interested in it. That Ireland has the same right to Home Rule as California no one has a right to question. If all our affairs were left to be done at Washington they would be poorly looked after. I would advise no secession from Great Britain—seek Home Rule, regulate local interests and help run Great Britain, and help regulate the great interests of that country. The tendency of the age is towards strong government. Ireland should first attend to home work and then the common interests of the nation. She should provide her part of the brains and strength and reap her share of the laurels. Ireland has the right to and is on the road to Home Rule. It has done a great deal and is already on the way to the desired haven. The question is wider than Home Rule. The land tenure can't be settled by act of Parliament. Ireland needs her great brains and patience, as systems of wrong can't be torn down in a day. Great eruptions are not desirable. work quietly and persistently and overthrow the wrongs. I grant the right of revolution, but to-day when Gladstone is at the head and almost a majority of the votes are with us we can be patient a little longer until the great result is won. It matters little who rules England. The great question is the Irish question. Salisbury will present a Home Rule bill. Ireland has got the question before England and Irish freedom will be secured, and the right to own the land and build happy homes will be secured. Gladstone, if spared, will again be at the head of the government and Ireland will have Home Rule.

A quartette, consisting of Messrs. Fanning, Booth, Manning and Pendleton, sang "The Star Spangled Banner."

S. M. WHITE

Was introduced, amid applause. He said: "I have once before expressed my views on this subject, but as long as the matter is before the public and Home Rule is unsolved—until it is settled and is a law—I will not cease my efforts to as far as I can further and aid the cause. It may be said that it is singular that we, so far off, take so much interest; but when reflected upon it is not so strange. Mankind is not governed by wrong impulses, but the best people give sympathy and extend help to those down-trodden. This feeling is not born of ambition, but of a desire to emancipate those who are thralled. Throughout the whole world, where civilized, are found Irishmen and women who take a prominent part in the affairs of those by whom they are surrounded, and their influence is extended to help Ireland. To-day the nation that does not listen to reason receives condemnation and merits the scorn of all. I am glad to see a disposition among Englishmen to think that all is not right in the treatment of Ireland and that pages of England's history had better be blotted out. They are manly to admit it. Mr. Gladstone is not young. He has had the experience of three generations; and now, without ambition for the future, he tells his countrymen that they have been wrong and should extend to Irishmen the right of governing themselves. The very people whose ancestors crossed swords with Ireland are now helping Gladstone. Ireland is now near the fruition of her fondest hopes. See how the cause is advancing. It must ultimately win. It is said that the new Parliament can't last six months. Everything tends toward Home Rule. But we are not here to assist by words alone. It is our duty to contribute dollars and cents. The men who represent Ireland are poor and receive no salary. Some of the members support themselves by writing for newspapers. Those of their friends and brothers who are better placed should contribute their mite to aid Ireland's representatives in Parliament. So much work would not have been done had it not been for the aid sent from America.

Every right thinking man will concede that Ireland should govern herself and her own affairs. The question is one not to be settled by the sword, but by peaceful methods. This is better than that in the lurid flame of revolution a people should be swept from the face of the earth." [Applause.]

A letter was read from Father Meyer excusing his absence and enclosing a check for $25 to help the cause.

The "Dear Little Shamrock" was sung by Mr. James Booth.

MAYOR E. F. SPENCE.

"I hardly present myself as an Irishman but rather as a Methodist, because at all Methodist meetings a collection is taken up and we propose to take up one at this meeting. I came to assist in some humble way this object so dear to my heart. I wish I could lose sight of my official position and appear as a lover of mankind and of Home Rule. The Tories say that Home Rule means papal rule. I wish to combat that idea. In the last Parliament there were twenty Methodists, and fifteen voted for Home Rule. This does not look as is it was papal rule. That cry is only a bugaboo. Every few years I make a trip to the land that gave me birth. I have visited almost every city of Ireland. I know the feelings of these down-trodden people. I know thousands are hungry and Home Rule will be better than what they have to-day. Home Rule is not antagonistic to England. It is a British measure. Home Rulers don't want separation."

"I would like to start a little subscription to aid the lovers of Ireland to sustain themselves. Let us raise something and cable it to London to-morrow. I will be one of five to give $500—that is, I will give $100 if four others will join me."

After a pause Col. Boyce arose in the audience and said: "I am not so fortunate as Mayor Spence, in that I am not an Irishman and am a poor man, but I will give $100 to this fund whether anybody joins me or not." [Loud and prolonged applause.]

Messrs. Moore, Moran, Kenealy and McGarry were appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions, and while the committee was performing its duties Prof. Arbuckle sang two original creations, entitled "Home Rule for Ireland" and "Erin Mavourneen."

J. C. Daly, Esq., made a short address, the following sentence of which elicited much applause: "No man can point to an instance where an Irishman shirked his allegiance to this country."

He said: "There will be a book opened for all subscriptions to be sent in up to August 1st. We call upon any ladies and others to bring what they can in small sums and present it to the treasurer or secretary, so that by the 1st of August we may have a sum respectable as coming from a city of the importance of Los Angeles."

THE AMOUNT SUBSCRIBED.

The following gentlemen subscribed the sums set opposite their names: Hon. E. F. Spence, $100; Col. H. H. Boyce, $100; Rev. Father Meyer, $25; O. W. Childs, $50; Col. W. S. Moore, $20; W. Memorial to the Legislature.

To the Senate and Assembly of the State of California:

We, the undersigned citizens, respectfully memorialize and petition your honorable body to consider and pass the measures relating to water and water rights recommended by the State Irrigation Convention, which met in San Francisco, May 20, 1886. The irrigation problem is the most vital question of the hour. Upon it depends the present welfare and future prosperity of the people. The decision of the Supreme Court, holding that the riparian owners along the unnavigable streams may enjoin any and every person who is not a riparian proprietor, from appropriating, diverting or using flowing water for irrigation is a deadly blow to the agricultural interests of the larger part of California. If this doctrine is enforced, it will destroy many millions of property, desolate thousands of farms and homes, and go far toward bankrupting the people of the State. Attempts to force such injunctions may lead to bloodshed. Free-born men are not willing to look upon the destruction of their homes and see the results of years of toil swept away, without resistance. But at any rate, the mere suspension of irrigation for a single season would result in wholesale destruction of property.

Under the laws and customs of the State which have been recognized and enforced in California ever since the first white settlement in the country, and which are in harmony with the customs and laws of all arid and comparatively rainless countries, similar to this, the running waters of unnavigable streams are public property, dedicated to public use and subject to appropriation for irrigation and all other beneficial purposes. The Supreme Court, by its decision, has attempted to change this and substitute the riparian doctrine of rainy England. If this decision is not set aside, so far as it goes to lay down a rule of law in this regard, it will desolate the land already redeemed from the desert, and check all further development. The injury to agriculture will impair other interests, and the value of other property in cities and towns as well as in the country. The people of the State have common interests.

And your memorialists further petition your honorable body to amend the Constitution so as to provide for a reorganization of the Supreme Court. As now constituted, it is an obstruction to the prosperity of the State. Your memorialists do not charge or assert that the Judges are in any way personally unworthy, but the majority of the court have announced doctrines in respect of water rights which are inconsistent with the true construction of the statutory and customary laws of California and destructive of vast interests of the people.

Your memorialists respectfully petition and urge immediate and effective action. A crisis in the affairs of the State is at hand. It will not wait. Immediate action is absolutely necessary to save the farmers who are dependent upon irrigation from ruin, and the destruction of agricultural interests would cause irretrievable and immeasurable injury to the State at large. The exigency is so great that the Constitutional amendments demanded by the occasion should be submitted for ratification at a special election which should be called for that purpose with the least possible delay.

The Weid Well.

Mr. Ivar A. Weid, the robust U. S. Gauger and granger was in the city yesterday. He has placed nine gas burners in the cap on the top of the tube from his well, about ten feet above the ground, and has them burning day and night. They are a fine beacon light to the people in the Cahuenga valley and might furnish fuel and light to a whole neighborhood if the gas were stored during the day time. The water and oil from the well Mr. Weid takes out through an orifice in the side of the pipe at the surface of the ground.

This well is a very valuable property and Mr. Weid contemplates making a series of wells for the purpose of making a gas and fuel company for all that part of the country.

Lots Level as a Floor

Is a good thing, if the level is a high one; but a low level is very bad for drainage. The lots of the Electric Railway Homestead Association are on a high level. See for yourself.

The Refrigerators Have Arrived,

As will be seen by notice elsewhere, Peck & Ruggles have received two carloads of the celebrated Baldwin Pure Air Refrigerators.

Local News Notes.

Sam Whitehead and assistants, representing Killip & Co., pool sellers, arrive to-day from above. They can be found at Reid's.

Colton passengers and all others between Los Angeles and Colton who desire to return from Santa Monica on Sunday will leave that place on the 3 P. M. train.

It does not seem to be quite the square thing that a special session of the Legislature should be called just when the "Chautauqua idea" is attracting everybody to the beach and "the salt sea breeze."

Messrs. Sanford Vail & Co., and Messrs. Franklin & Co., have placed in the G. A. R. headquarters several fine portraits of distinguished Americans and other appropriate picture scenes for hanging in the hall.

Hon. Chris. Green, of Sacramento, will arrive by to-day's Frisco train, and preside in the Judges' stand during the Los Angeles Turf Club Races. He will be assisted by President J. C. Newton, of the Agricultural Association, and sundry other gentlemen of like ability.

A large number of orange trees are being sold in the country nurseries which are free from scalebug. Tree planting is quite active for this time of year and will likely continue till into August, when it will be suspended till February. Orange growers are full of hope and faith in the future.

Elsewhere in this issue is published a memorial being circulated throughout the State for signatures, its object being to induce the Legislature to pass the irrigation bills and the amendment for the reorganization of the Supreme Court. A number of these memorials have been sent to this city for signatures.

The work of organizing the Southern California branch of the State Viticultural society is progressing finely, and the grape growers and wine and brandy makers are taking great interest in it. The work in the city will be commenced to-day. The sooner the viticulturists combine for mutual protection the better it will be for them.

To-morrow evening Grand Overseer A. C. Bane, of the A. O. U. W., of San Jose, will deliver an address in Grand Opera House Hall, to which the public are invited. Mr. Bane is said to be one of the most eloquent and interesting speakers of the A. O. U. W. order, and thoughtful people will find a rare treat in listening to him.

The sensational item in yesterday morning's Times about Dottie Manning, or Minnie Petit, as her true name is, has no other foundation than that she has escaped from the tin-horn gambler who has been preying upon her earnings. It is stated by those who know her that she is not given to drink, that it is not true that she had any difficulty with her landlady, and there is no ground for the supposition that a suicide has been committed. It is quite probable that the public has less interest in her whereabouts than the pencil pusher of the "truly moral paper."

The editor of the HERALD is indebted to Mr. G. Tononi for a couple of cases of the excellent wines for which his house has obtained such an enviable reputation. By careful study of the capabilities of our soil and climate and by the sagacious adoption of foreign varieties of grapes, Mr. Tononi has succeeded in making a claret that will sustain a favorable comparison with the best imported wines. He has been equally successful with his white brands. By intelligent devotion to his business and inflexible honesty in manipulating his goods, our fellow-citizen has amassed a handsome fortune and has approved himself to be a public benefactor as well.

There was a meeting yesterday afternoon of the subscribers to the stock of the Los Angeles and Ostrich Farm Railway Company and the articles of incorporation were read. There were present Dr. Chas. J. Sketchley, G. P. Beauchamp, R. H. Stacey, M. L. Wicks. H. W. Mills, E. E. Hall, W. W. Stilson, C. J. Shepherd, G. J. Griffith, Geo. H. Smith, J. W. Potts and some other subscribers to the stock—several conditional upon the route of the railroad. The railroad proposed is a steam narrow-guage from the city of Los Angeles to the ostrich farm of Dr. Sketchley. The capital stock proposed is $60,000, of which about $50,000 is already subscribed, although some of the subscriptions are conditional upon the route selected. The stock subscribers failed to complete an organization, and adjourned to next Friday for further consultation and adjustment of differences. There does not seem to be much doubt about the accomplishment of the project when the diverse interests are accommodated.

Personal Mention.

Mr. John Bryson returned from an eastern trip yesterday.

Mr. Isaac Polhamus, captain of the Colorado flotilla, is in the city.

Mr. J. P. Kennedy, of San Gorgonio, is in town on a business visit.

A. Frank, of Yuma, was in the city yesterday. His family is at Santa Monica.

Mr. C. S. Gilbert of the California Southern leaves to-day on a business trip to San Diego.

Mr. A. J. Morrison, cashier of the Palace Hotel of San Francisco, is registered at the Pico.

Col. P. D. Grimes the manager of the Highland Home hotel in the beautiful San Gorgonio Pass, is visiting the city.

Mrs. A. Glassell, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. A. Glassell, Jr., and Miss Gibbes left yesterday for a month's trip to the Yosemite and other points of interest.

Mr. W. L. Witherbee, of Orange, and Miss M. C. Cutler, of Boston, Mass., guests at the Pico, went quietly out to a parson last evening and became Mr. and Mrs. Witherbee.

Mrs. Marie A. de Woodworth and son Eddie left on the train yesterday for San Francisco to meet her daughter, Mrs. C. E. De Camp. From there she goes to Casper, Mendocino county, to remain four or five months with her.

Prof. Alfred Higbie, who lived at Compton and was prominently known as a civil engineer in this county for many years and became blind a few years since, has recovered his eyesight and taken a professorship in the University of the Pacific at Santa Clara.

Mr. Carlisle Terry, jr., who is in charge of the Magnetic Observatory in this city, left yesterday for a ten days vacation at San Gorgonio. Mr. Terry, who has the reputation of being one of the most expert and reliable officers in the Coast Survey, as is evidenced by his being placed in charge of this important observatory, has been in Los Angeles for twenty-seven months without a day off. The fortunate presence of Mr. R. A. Marr, another eminent Coast Survey officer, in this city, gives Mr. Terry the opportunity of a well earned vacation. The HERALD trusts that he will return much improved in health.

That Irresponsible

Who thinks that the Electric Homestead Assoc'n can only succeed in its illegitimate business of selling lottery tickets by reflecting discreditably on other tracts is mistaken. Free ride to Wiesendanger's City Tract from 23 N. Spring St.

Before the September Boom

What will be the price of the Williamson lots in September when the handsome improvements, electric lights, plank sidewalks, villa residences, etc., are being made? Do you think that you can buy them for double the sum they are now selling for? Take our judgment in real estate when we emphatically say NO! Every lot around the property is held at from $800 to $1300 each. It is the only location offered that is in pleasant walking distance from the postoffice.

A Cat in a Bag.

The Electric Railway Homestead Association advises you not to buy a cat in a bag—namely, a lot with no street car line and no prospect of any nearer than a half mile.

Our Philadelphia Lager.

What is it drives the heat away
Makes everything seem bright and gay,
And cheers me up from day to day?
Real Philadelphia Lager.

At home my wife and children dear,
Ne'er fail to whisper in my ear,
"Jacob, don't fail to bring some beer—
Real Philadelphia Lager?"

No more I drink the Eastern beer,
Our own, made here, will surely do;
'Tis pure, 'tis cool and healthy, too,
Our Philadelphia Lager.

Made in Los Angeles, at the Philadelphia Brewery, Aliso street, Maier & Zobelein, proprietors.

No Need to Beg.

Ladies have your husbands see the lots of the Electric Homestead Association and they will buy gladly.

No Citizen of Honest Standing

Signs his name to an illegal lottery scheme. Fair business sales in Wiesendanger's City Tract.

It Cannot Be!

What! Residence lots on Eleventh, Twelfth and Pico streets, almost adjoining Pearl, at $390! Why, outside property, down in gulches, up on inaccessible hills, at graveyard gates and adjoining Santa Monica are selling for more money than the central lots of the Williamson Tract, with all the handsome improvements to be made.

A Boom.

"Well, I should smile. The Electric Railway Homestead Association has to employ four extra teams to-day to accommodate the army of purchasers." A good location tells.

Reflecting Discredit

On other tracts is not honest business practice. Selling lottery tickets is illegitimate and not carried on by people who sign their names. Fair business sales in Wiesendanger's City Tract. Free ride from 23 N. Spring.

The Electroplating and Stencil Works

Are again open for business at No. 426 First street, below Alameda.

Two-thirds Sold! The Last and Only

Central residence lots at $390, with all the improvements! Do not expect another tract like the Williamson.

The Electric Railway Homestead Association

Does not advertise a street railway within one block when it is half a mile away. We build the Electric Railway direct to our own property. Come and see it.

No Slandering of Other Tracts

Needed to sell lots in Wiesendanger's City Tract. Free ride from 23 N. Spring.

More People Disappointed.

Doubting Thomas and Hesitating James held a long talk yesterday and concluded that there was "plenty of time" yet to subscribe to the Williamson Tract. They will again be too late. Twelve lots sold on Tuesday.

Meeting of Fort Street Property Owners.

There will be a meeting of the Fort street property owners this evening at the City Hall at half-past 7 o'clock sharp. All owners of property are earnestly requested to be present.

An Invitation.

Go out in our carriage and see how much higher the Electric Railway Homestead Association Tract is than Washington street. Water and sewerage will find its level.

Perfect Title, Perfect Health, Perfect Drainage.

If you wish all these you are referred to citizens Sentous and Vallon, who reside adjoining the Williamson Tract. They will tell you it is the healthiest locality in the city.

Marriage Licenses.

The following persons were yesterday licensed to wed: Frank N. Townsend to Annie Toker; Jean Archimand to Marie Durraty; O. K. Young to Carrie B. Davison; Chas. Leslies to Ella Sechler.

All High Ground.

Any one can see that our lots are well drained. The Electric Railway Homestead Association carriages will take you free to see them.

Have You Seen the Property?

Our own carriages at 9, 11, 1, 3 and 4:30 o'clock to the Williamson Tract.

Business is Business.

Others may advertise healthy, well-drained lots, but the Electric Railway Homestead Association have them. See all and compare, and then use your own judgment.

Where Shall I Buy a Lot?

Not adjoining a cemetery, for coffee and coffins do not go well together. Washington street is not a burying ground until you are two miles out. Malaria from decaying bodies is worse than Chinese vegetables.
